Dear Hiring Manager:

It was with much interest that I read the job posting on your website for a Promotion Optimization – Specialist. Your description of an ideal candidate closely matches my skills and experience, and so I am excited to submit my resume to you for your consideration.

My resume is attached. If I can provide you with any further information on my background and qualifications, please let me know.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Syamala Balasubramanian
